

Handwritten notes in German, likely describing the truck's specifications or the scene. The text is written vertically along the left side of the drawing.